The Greenville Rancheria Council has established a Tribal Health Program for their members. The Tribal Health Program is not insurance.

The limits are: $3,500.00 each year for single members and $5,000.00 for members with families to assist in payment of their out of pocket health care needs.

I understand that once the allotted amount has been used for the year. Any other amounts will be my responsibility.

I further understand that there are other programs that I can apply for that would cover my healthcare needs.
